New format sizes

This issue of The Western Review marks the paper's move to a standardized system of newspaper sizes across Canada.

Most weekly newspapers are conforming to the standards.

The change means there are now five compact each page in The Western Review, instead of the previous six.

The new system is designed to standardize advertisement sizes. An advertisement compatible with one newspaper is also compatible with all newspapers under the new system.

Christmas Day fire

For the first time in several years, the Drayton Valley volunteer fire department worked Christmas Day.

A call was turned in at 12:45 a.m. at an abandoned building on 26th Avenue and 24th Street. Fire Chief Sheldon Evans says the cause of the fire, which took about three hours to bring under control, is still being investigated. The building was scheduled to be destroyed in the new year.

Aviation speaker at Chamber

Rick McFarlane of Skodopole Brothers Aviation will be the guest speaker at the Jan. 8 Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting.

The 6:30 p.m. affair will be held at the Westview. Advance tickets are available at the Western Review office.

McFarlane's talk will centre on Skodopole's affiliation, currently before the Canadian Transport Commission, for a scheduled air service connecting Drayton Valley with Calgary, Edmonton and Rocky Mountain House.

Skodopole Brothers Aviation is an established Alberta corporation and has been actively involved in aviation since 1960. Initial operations were conducted from a grass strip located east of Okla. In 1961 the main base was moved to Calgary with a second base established in Edmonton.

Service activities cover most facets of the industry. Primarily operating pipeline patrol aircraft until 1980, the company expanded into charter work serving the oil patch with crew change aircraft and offering executive and cargo services. In recent years the firm has added an aerial photography division and further growth in the charter market.

Skodopole is currently one of the largest light aircraft charter companies in Alberta with a complement of 14 aircraft ranging from single engine Cessna Cardinals to Cessna 440s. Piper Navajos to a Beechcraft King Air 200 and Bellview Twin Otter. The company employs 25 personnel with 16 flight crew and various ground support personnel.

McFarlane is expected to have the latest news on Skodopole's application and will be available to answer any questions on the proposed service. "Expansion into the regional market is seen as a logical development for our progressive company," McFarlane says.

Tomahawk

Curling starts on Monday in new complex

Curling will start January 6 in the new Tomahawk multi-purpose facility.

According to Don Gilbert, a spokesperson for the Tomahawk Agri-Association, the ice was put in last week. The association is looking for curlers for both their evening league and an afternoon ladies' league. So far, 14 teams have registered for the evening league according to Gilbert.

She said if they can get enough ladies' teams they will probably curl one day a week in the afternoon.

Anyone interested in signing up for either league should contact Frank at 339-9336.

Two elections

Busy year is forecasted

It promises to be a very busy year. Two elections, a provincial, likely in the spring and the municipal march to the polls in October.

After years of talking and reports, '85 could finally see some action on a new county. But, it will be the people, like the Yes Group, Western Ratepayers, who will have to get things rolling.

Sturdi-Wood will attract a lot of interest as they work toward producing their first board in November. We could see some spin-off announcements as a result of the new mill like improvements to the Lodgepole Highway and word on a railway study.

Besides logging trucks, more tourist traffic will likely be seen in the area this summer with the completion of Highway 22 and mention of the province spending some tourist dollars in the Brazeau area.

The keen interest in our area is expected to result in a scheduled air service with Edmonton and Calgary in the next month or so.

Construction will continue and will see a new $800,000 church, completion of the $100,000 track at Frank Maddock school, a new swimming pool at Breton, expansion at the Drayton Valley golf course and some serious talks on a new arena/curling rink/multi-purpose complex.

We'll also be looking for completion of the paving, development of MacKenzie Park, progress on the annexation of Poplar Ridge, another successful trade fair and continued success for the business and residential community.

Bouquet to shops for excellent service

Congratulations to former Western Review darkroom technician Recline Houston on the birth of a baby girl on Dec. 22. We all thought she was going to give us the New Year's baby. It's the Houston's first child.

One thing that was obvious as we went from store to store doing our Christmas shopping, was the excellent service.

Despite being busy and often run off their feet, staff at Drayton Valley stores always seemed available. It left us with a good feeling of 'shopping locally' as we filled our Christmas lists.

Editor's Notes

What about this weather?

I can't recall a Christmas when the ground was so bare as we experienced this year. We'd be interested in hearing from any of our readers who can recall a similar December.

But, you can bet, we'll pay for it down the road. We can still get some pretty mean weather in Jan., Feb. and March.

We're looking forward to '86. The opening of the Sturdi-Wood project is expected to produce some exciting spinoffs and the eventual completion of Highway 22 may produce substantial tourist traffic for the area. In sports, we'll be looking for some definite action on a new curling rink/ arena/multi-purpose complex and a start on the town's athletic achievement policy.

Olympic track star writes letter to Tomahawk girl

By Debbie Johnson

Canadian Olympic track and field finalist Angela Bailey took time recently to fulfill the hopes of a seven-year-old girl living in the Tomahawk area.

"I was expecting it in letter because I asked her to send one back," said Tomahawk Grade 3 student Megan Bratenbach, referring to a reply from a letter she had written to Bailey. Bailey did not let Megan down. She wrote the little girl a three-page letter accompanied by a photo of herself.

"I was hoping she'd send a picture," explained Megan. Megan wrote to the athlete about a month ago after reading an article about her in a magazine. She sent the letter in care of the magazine.

"I wrote to her to find out about her running and to tell her about myself and my pets," she said. Megan enjoys running along with several other sports including basketball, bird ball, soccer, handball, swimming and cross-country skiing. She has dreams of one day becoming a teacher and a "good runner."

Megan said she watched the Olympic games on TV, paying close attention to Bailey's performance in the relay and 100-metre events.

In her letter to Megan, Bailey wrote that she was "delighted" to hear from her and "hoped" to read about her pets. She went on to tell Megan about her running and her life in California where she has been attending

Megan Bratenbach

University for more than a year.

In closing Bailey wrote: "Believe in yourself and have fun. When you get older believe in yourself, work hard and have fun, and when you get even older, believe in yourself, work hard, be persistent and have fun. This will help you to be a good runner."

This will also help you to be successful at other things. You will know when you are ready to be older."

Megan's mother said she was "really impressed" that Bailey took the time to write to someone she didn't know. "It's fantastic that she'd take the time to write a three-page letter," added Megan's father.

School statistics

Enrolment at County of Parkland public schools has increased by five students over the previous year, says an assistant superintendent.

Leroy Sloan told members of the school board's education committee at their general meeting in Granville on Dec. 15, the county system has hired 11 more teaching staff this year.

Most of the new staff have been allocated to special education programs. Despite the hiring of additional teachers, therefore, there are quite a number of classrooms in the high (25 to 29 student) range.

The number of combined classes in Grades 1 through 9 has remained constant at 19. Teacher aides are assigned on the basis of need, Sloan said. Sometimes they are brought into classrooms even when the numbers of students aren't high.

Administration would certainly look at providing special assistance for many teachers with more than 30 students, he said.

Trustee Ryszko Kulek said she was concerned about classrooms with more than 30 students, particularly at the junior high school level.

Students at this level are going through many developmental changes, she said.

Trustee Cecil Dawkins said he was disappointed Sloan hadn't highlighted programs for the gifted and talented in his School Organization Report.

Sloan indicated such programs are being offered in existing classrooms, without the provision of additional staff.

The county has also assigned two teachers the duties of consultants for the development of programs for the gifted.

Nonetheless, Dawkins said he would like to see a program given a higher visibility.

Without such visibility, the funds which are available for the programs are easily "nibbled away," he said.

President of Association protests statement in paper

Dear Editor,
It has come to my attention that there have been some strong insinuations published in several local newspapers in our town accusing the Evergreen Tourist Association for not paying its manager.

As president, on behalf of myself and the rest of the executive, I like to protest these statements. The facts are that our manager, Doug Woodhouse, has resigned for family reasons, not because he was not paid his salary. All of us know that our laws state that we must pay those who work for us, and the manager is in charge of the payroll as well as balancing income with expenses.

The insinuation behind your statements is, that our association is not financially in a good position. We are very much aware of this and as president I have requested the Tourist Association of Alberta, to which our organization pays a $6,000 membership fee each year.

The only help received was the advice that we must help ourselves, since some of the $35 million or more from the Provincial Federal Tourism Agreement money would be available to the towns.

By the way, we are not the only zone in this position. The four northern zones, who requested the Aug. 1 meeting are in the same financial condition or worse.

The purpose of the Evergreen Tourist Association is to promote tourism within the province of Alberta for the Evergreen Zone.

Our income comes from memberships, such as town, villages, municipalities, counties and improvement districts, who in 1985 will pay $3 cents per capita. Businesses pay $35 per year.

Letters

With the membership comes the opportunity to advertise in the zone brochure, published and updated each year, and most recently the "Evergreen Experience" map, a project which is the envy of all other zones and is a pilot project started by the Evergreen Tourist Association.

Both advertising pieces are published in quantity and go out to all tourist booths in the province as well as being mailed to inquirers from all over the world. Further, each town and village is represented in the many trade fairs in the province and the association spearheads projects created by the membership.

All directors, as well as the executive work voluntarily, and now pay their own meals as well as paying their own mileage and even have to pay for the meeting room they meet in. But we must have an officer and a manager, who looks after our affairs and is the liaison between the membership in our large zone, and we are a large zone if only in distance, not population.

However, since government cutbacks the last three years, our assistance from TAZAP (the financial arm of TAAALTA) was reduced to $10,000 for administration purposes. Actually if our membership fee of $6,000 is taken into consideration, this makes only $4,000 assistance that we receive. The rest must be made up locally, and with a budget of $50,000 it means that we have to come up with $46,000 each year from the membership.

We have about 8,500 people in our zone. If all municipalities were members, it would bring us $22,000. But unfortunately, all are not but we still pay the membership in TAAALTA also for them, do not pay us. If we had 1,000 business members, we would be able to raise $35,000 but we have less than 200. So you can see the picture.

We have struggled over the last years to do our job and make ends meet, but it seems we are only getting criticism and not constructive at that. May I ask the communities in the Evergreen Tourist Zone if they think tourism is important? If the answer is yes, has your town or village or county seen in their membership for on time, which is in January of each year?

May I ask our directors how many of the six meetings during the year they have attended? Did they mind the updates of their communities for the brochure last time? Did they come up with suggestions for new projects? I could go on, but will stop here. As you fail to realize that an organization is only as strong as its members? If you want to destroy the association, just keep on the road you are now and you will succeed.

I am, however, thankful that we did receive a very strong support at our Dec. 17 meeting from at least two Chambers of Commerce in the western part of our area who are willing to do what they can to help us keep going. In the rest of our area going to sit idly by? We will operate our zone in 1986 without a manager because our budget does not allow us to have one. The chambers of the two towns are offering to help us represent you at the trade show. They will help with literature distribution, solicit advertising, membership drive, etc.

They will be making a proposal about the mechanics of this to you but already it looks good. In your chamber and the political leaders in your community willing to do the money? If so, we will succeed and again be a strong organization.

Yes, we are in financial difficulty at the present, but are taking steps to correct this situation. With your help we hope to make 1986 a successful year for Evergreen Zone 7.

for town and county people. The Drayton Valley library board went to the public in the fall, asking concerned people to speak their views. I am sure that the library officials about the probable hike in county user fees. Well, the people spoke out!

At a recent meeting of the Drayton Valley Municipal Library Board, we voted unanimously in favor of keeping the town and county library user rates equal. This means $5 per person, $10 per family, no matter how many miles you travel to use the library. We are still hoping for more county dollars in the 1986/87 year.

Thanks to all of you who made that phone call! A very merry Christmas.

Used parts

Teows applies for a permit

A Driffield area resident has been given the opportunity to apply for a development permit to sell used vehicle parts from his premises.

The county's Development Appeal Board decided to hold in abeyance an order requiring George Teows to remove inoperative and unregistered vehicles by Dec. 31 from his property along Hwy. 16.

Teows said at the board's hearing he had been informed by the real estate agent when he bought his property that it was zoned commercial (County Planning Officer Pat Harrington said the property was zoned country residential).

A lot of people stop at his residence asking for car parts, Teows said. He is presently keeping 10 inoperative vehicles at his premises.

A neighbor, Alex Rignell, indicated by letter to the board he had no objections to the storage of vehicles on Teows' property.

The vehicles are kept neatly lined up, Rignell said. If Teows owns them, it is not a neighbor's business to tell him what to do with them, he said.

Harrington indicated the county's bylaws allow residences a maximum of two inoperative or unregistered vehicles on their property.

Director of Municipal Planning Court Breckenridge told Teows he will have to get approval from Alberta

Transportation (since his property is along Hwy. 16), as well as the county, before he can operate his proposed used parts business.

Kevin Maurice McCollagh informed Teows the county requires businesses involving the storage of vehicles to have their premises so the vehicles can't be seen from the road.

Teows' development application will have to be considered by the county's Municipal Planning Commission when it is received.

Blades extend losing streak to four

The Barrhead goalie watches as a Blade shot goes wide in action last Friday.

The Blades lost their fourth game in a row Friday by dropping a 10-4 decision against visiting Barrhead. Kevin Hutchins scored twice for Drayton V. Jay with Chad Allen and Grant McEwan adding singles.

Before Christnas the Blades had lost the 10 games in a row.

On Dec. 30 they hosted Rocky Mountain Lions and lost 7-5. Grant McGinn and Sheldon Dunham both had two goals with Blair Shumash adding a goal and two assists. Kevin Hutchins also notched two assists in the losing effort.

The Blades were tied with the Rocky Rockets 1-1 after the first period but fell behind 4-1 after two. According to Blades' co-coach Morris Seifering the team couldn't "come back enough" in the third.

The Blades took on Rimby in Drayton Valley the next day and were dumped 12-4 by the visitors. Grant McGinn, Kevin Hutchins, Sheldon Dunham and Blair Shumash all scored for the Blades with Shumash adding two assists. Seifering said the team "didn't play very well."

The last Blades' game before Christmas came when they travelled to Barrhead on the 26th and dropped a close 2-1 decision. Blair Shumash, Jason Trenehuk, Grant McGinn and Chad Allen all scored with Sheldon Dunham adding two assists. Seifering said they were tied 2-2 after one period and 3-3 after two periods. He added they led 4-3 at one point in the third but "fell apart in the end."

"We should have won that one," Seifering pointed out.

Forty-eight rinks vie for Oilmen's crown

Carlere will hit the ice for the 21st annual Oilmen's bonspiel on January 10 in Drayton Valley.

Forty-eight rinks will be competing this year including the defending champion Barrhead rink from Edmonton.

Over the 21 year history of the event only a few rinks have repeated as champions.

In 1964 John Penning, Al Pankowski, Harry Ronaldson and Ken Peterson won the event. The 1965 winner was Ules O'Dreysik, Ken Land siddal, Len Cyca and Bob Anderson.

Dennis Francis, Jack Strider, Glen Alexander and Karl Schmenmud won the event in 1979, 1981 and '82. No winners' names were available for 1980.

Don Knopp, Ron Knopp, Jim Lockhart and Dale Maccoche won the bonspiel in 1978. In 1977 John Penning (also on the 1984 winning team) won with his rink of Alex Salli, Darryl Edging and Glenn Bader.

Don Barry, Bill Barr, Bud Hutchins and Norm Stewart won the trophy in 1976 with R. Thachuk, G. Campbell, L. Spole and B. Jaster winning in 1975.

Ed Dmytryshyn was a winner in both 1973 and 1974. In 1974 he did it with Ted Strassuk, John Penning and Alex Salli. Dmytryshyn and Strassuk joined Gordon Scott and Lee Scoles to win it in 1973. Lou Schneider, John Fraser, Brent Fellows and Don Grabiner won the 1972 bonspiel with John Wrongo, Elmer Gombos, Nick Barron and Don Hooper winning the 1971 title.

No winners' names were available for 1970 but in 1969 Harry Acheson, J.A. Qod, L. Broches and J.F. God won. The third annual tournament in 1968 saw Ken Gillis, Harry Acheson, W. Debrassy and Lou Schneider win.

Billy Rose launched the first rock for the 48 rinks in the 1967 event but Garry Barnard, Grant Kuba, Ralph Hook and Harold Freund won in the end.

The first annual bonspiel in 1966 was won by Ron Richardson, Cal Lower, Lorrie Barkley and Ken Kane as they beat out the other 35 rinks entered.

The first curling bonspiel in 1966 was won by Ron Richardson, Cal Lower, Lorrie Barkley and Ken Kane as they beat out the other 35 rinks entered.

Swimming pool construction approved

By Shelll Carson
696-2290

On Dec. 17 the West End Swimming Pool Society received unanimous approval from the County of Leduc to proceed with the plans for the construction of a pool at the high school.

Members of the Warburg Royal Canadian Legion No. 205, Mark Hooks and Jim Hankins, attended an assembly at Breton High School to present awards to several students for their efforts in the Legion Remembrance Day essay and poem contest.

Receiving first place in the senior category were Brenda Hatt and Debbie Hansen with their poem "Nations Flowers". First in the intermediate category went to Kari Schenk for her entry "We'll Never Forget". Also winning first in the intermediate category was an essay by Adrian Dwyer.

First place winners received $25, second place $15 and all received a 50th anniversary Legion commemorative medallion. Teacher Olga Reade received a medallion and Legion pin for her efforts coordinating the submissions. The selections will now go on to competition at the same level.

Michael Poholka, a Grade 12 student at Breton high is among those selected for a trip to Ottawa to attend the Forum For Young Canadians in May. This week-long seminar is designed to study the process of government in Canada. Past winners from Breton are Paul Wynnyk, Dylan Reade and Shauna McDonald. Maurianne Reade and Elna Reade are former winners of the Forum For Young Albertans, which was a trip to the Alberta legislature.

Dylan Reade was home for Christmas from his film studies course at Ryerson Polytechnic Institute, Toronto. During his vacation he worked part-time at ITV, B&B.

The Breton High School held their Christmas concert Dec. 12. A 20-year service pin was presented to Gwen Samardic and a 10-year pin to Jack Hilker and Jim Musson.

Breton News

The Alberta Youth Award presentation was made to Devin Reade. Reade was nominated for the award by former principal Walter Wrynkyk for his outstanding contributions to his school and his community, beginning as early as Grade 7.

The Breton Elementary concert held Dec. 19 was a great success. Two-year pins were presented to teachers Donna Brown and Pam Mitchell.

The next Elks bingo will be Jan. 8 at the Breton Hec Centre.

Teresa Wytkiw (nee Gryb), formerly of Breton, has been named a recipient of the Louise McKinney scholarship at the University of Lethbridge. Wytkiw is the fourth Breton high school alumna to win the scholarship. She also received a scholarship from the Alberta Association of Registered Nurses and is president of the Nurses' Undergraduate Society.

Donations

Santa's Anonymous campaign successful

Food hampers prepared for needy families.

The Drayton Valley Santa's Anonymous campaign was reported to be very successful this Christmas raising food and gift donations for 90 needy residents.

Volunteer fund raiser Wayne Thompson said plenty of donations were raised to provide each family with gifts for their children and about a week's supply of food.

Last Christmas Santa's Anonymous helped approximately 120 families and was sponsored by the local Legion.

"It was totally self supporting this year. It rained enough without having to go to the Legion for help," said Thompson. "I was a little lucky but people came through in the last week. It was really impressive. It seemed as if it came closer to Christmas people opened their hearts up," he added.

The second annual Christmas concert and polka was a great success. Fifty children from the community participated in nine different performances. Sharon Swanton was director.

Park Playground installed our equipment for the preschool area of the park.

We hope to order another larger structure for the older children in the spring.

The community has a new resident - Kimberly. These arrived Dec. 5 weighing seven pounds one ounce. Proud parents are Tim and Colleen Zukera.

Dr. John Hunter's sister Marjorie and husband John O'Hell from Toronto, visited during the holidays.

Board of Education

Five intern positions are open

The board of education has approved the hiring of five more teaching interns for County of Parkland Schools.

The county was initially granted 21 internship positions by Alberta Education under the pilot initiative to Teaching Project.

The hiring of interns to fill the 21 positions was subsequently approved by the board.

Following an administrative appeal to the provincial education department, the county was granted five more internship positions (the county system includes 26 schools).

Superintendent of Schools Mary Thachuk told trustees recently administration is intent to place one intern at each school in the county system, unless there isn't a need for additional staff at particular schools.

Universally, students graduating in December are eligible to be hired as interns.

as a result of the approval granted for the additional positions, he said.

The rest of the additional positions will come out of the 1986 school system budget.

Trustee Penny Miller in making the motion to approve the hiring of five more interns for County of Parkland schools, said the initiative to Teaching Project "is one of the most positive programs to come out of Alberta Education in a long time."

Powerhouse

Course registration dates set

The Powerhouse Further Education Council is gearing up for the introduction of its winter program.

Registration for the open courses will be from Jan. 15 to Jan. 17 at the Derrick Mall.

Powerhouse co-ordinator Val Tucker said the council is planning to offer between 20 to 30 courses in the winter schedule.

Photography, first aid, social dance, a bereavement seminar and business courses including typing, accounting, word processing and computers are among some of the courses the council is planning to offer.

Also, a new four-part course called Dinners for Six consisting of five-course meals is to be taught by a local Swiss chef.

Mid-Life Career Change, a course on changing careers and how to make yourself more "saleable" is to be offered in co-operation with the Alberta government.

Courses tentative upon available instructors include women's self defense and chinese cooking.

Tucker said anyone requiring information on available courses or instructing a course can contact her at the Prohibitia Consortium 1 to 4 p.m. Monday to Thursday.

The Powerhouse's annual meeting will be held Jan. 9 and is open to the public.

Fish and Game Annual meeting

On Dec. 5 the Breton and District Fish and Game Association held their annual meeting.

Election of officers for the 1986 term were as follows:

President: Don Freeman;
vice-pres.: Bill Ross,
secretary: Alice Mockerman,
treasurer: Rose Saunders,
lunch committee: Bradish
Ostby and Bette Fenneman.

It was decided to appoint eight directors and the rest of the committees at the January meeting. The banquet and trophy night supper is scheduled for Feb. 14.

Ticket prices and entertainment will be announced later. For the January meeting it was decided to have a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. A film will be shown after the meeting. Bill Ross volunteered to purchase a memorial plaque for the deceased members. Rose Saunders volunteered to order the necessary pins for the trophy night supper.
